ORDER STAYING PRETRIAL SCHEDULING

THIS MATTER comes before the Court following a telephonic status conference, held on November 20, 2017, to discuss discovery and pretrial deadline options in light of pending dispositive motions. As discussed on the record, the Court has determined that there is good cause to stay pretrial scheduling pending the outcome of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss [Doc. No. 55] and Motion to Strike Plaintiff's Sur-Reply [Doc. No. 69].

IT IS SO ORDERED.
